

All events are free to registered campers.
Non-campers can purchase passes to programs for $20 for the weekend (available at the front gate).

Be sure to come early and start decorating your campsite. A free weekend of camping will be awarded to the first place winner.

Friday, October 21

7-8 p.m. - Campfire Fun

Join us around the campfire at the Interpretive Center Amphitheatre for some family fun. Songs, Storytelling, and marshmallows roasted over the fire.

Registration information for all cruises for Camper Appreciation Weekend is on the back of the brochure.

Saturday, October 22

10 a.m. - 11 a.m. Birds of Prey

Join Zach Walker, Naturalist from Hardy Lake as he introduces some the inhabitants of the raptor rehab program at Hardy Lake.
These birds of prey are magnificent to see, and even more so up close at the Interpretive Center mobile stage.

1 p.m. - 3 p.m. - Kids' Fall Funfest

Pumpkin coloring, Halloween Costume Contest, Lake Monroe style soap making, and a piñata; what more can you ask for? The pumpkins are even real! There will be prizes! Look for the costumed Interpretive Center naturalist at the Interpretive Center mobile stage.

4 p.m. - 6 p.m. - Early evening on the Water

An Indiana autumn goes hand in hand with a leisurely boat ride on the water. See back of brochure for cruise registration information. Meet at the marina.

6:30 p.m. - 7 p.m. Campsite Decorating Judging

Be sure to have all your decorations completed before now to win a free weekend of camping for first prize. Winners will be announced during the Street Dance at the Interpretive Center mobile stage.

7 p.m. - 9 p.m. Street Dance With A DJ

You've been asking for them for several years and finally, they're back. Dance to oldies, rock, country and just about everything else at the street dance at the Interpretive Center mobile stage.

Reserve your campsite today!
